

The Little Blue Kite

Riya found a tiny blue kite hiding behind a tree. She fixed its torn tail with bright yellow ribbon and ran into the field. The kite danced high in the sky and made a happy whistle. A small sparrow flew beside it as if they were best friends. When the wind became slow, Riya laughed and spun in circles until the kite floated again. At sunset she carefully rolled up the string and promised, "Tomorrow we will fly even higher!" The sparrow chirped, the kite twirled, and everyone went home smiling.
